Marriage Banns

III: Jackson Brosmer & Emily Leone

III: Stephanie Nordhoff & Nicholas Daudy

Many sincere thanks for all the food and flowers delivered to the Rectory. It is humbling to receive the love and peace of Christ in such bounty.

I am looking forward to returning to Mass, Tuesday, October 3 at 6:30 PM at Saint Isidore, Celestine. It would mean a lot to me if Saint Isidore would gather to receive the Eucharist together as a unified community. Lastly, let me give thanks to God for allowing us the privilege of the True Presence in Holy Mass; it gives my life meaning. If all age groups are represented, as well as the clubs and leaders of the Church, my heart will sing. It's ALL about Jesus, you see? Not about me.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

The gifts made to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, formerly the Catholic Parishes Campaign, have had a tremendous impact upon tens of thousands of members of our diocese. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the appeal this year.

"From Natural Family Planning to Redbird Ministries to Gabriel Project, (the Office of Family Life) works constantly to effectively 'grow the business' of bringing Christ (back) into the daily lives of those in need."

The Diocese saw an increase in seminarians from 11 seminarians in 2021 to 16 in 2022. The House of Discernment and the Savio brotherhood nested within its mission saw the largest numbers at events in 2022.

The Office of Vocations and the Office of Family and Life is supported by our contributions to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Read the full impact of this ministry at www.evdio.org/impact-report or scan the QR code.

Reflections from Deacon Mike

End of the Pilgrimage

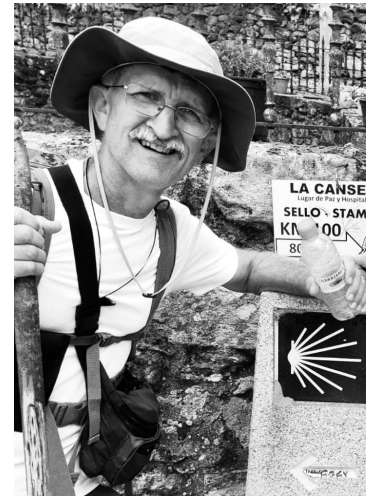

The Spanish word 'El Camino' means 'the way'. The Camino de Santiago, aka 'The Way of St. James', is a 500-mile walk across northern Spain to the tomb of St. James. This pilgrimage is at least 1000 years old, with hundreds of thousands of people walking it every year.

I'm back!!! It was an incredible trip, filled with challenges, emotions, pain, but mostly lots of amazing sights, culture, and people. While I'm glad to be home, I already hope to have an opportunity to go back and maybe take some of you with me :).

I have many stories to tell, and I'm slowly writing them up as I contemplate the experience. You'll see an article soon about trying to understand why it was so emotional for me arriving in Santiago. Another article will talk about the people who weave in and out our lives. Otherwise, you can expect to hear about Camino in homilies- or just ask me about it and I can talk your ear off.

Part of what made this meaningful as the interaction with folks back home. Many of you were praying for us while I was praying for our parish from there. It was also encouraging that so many folks followed our trip on my Facebook posts. Every night I could see the comments and reactions, and that encouraged me to keep posting. That was also good, because it caused me to reflect DAILY on the highlights so that I could share them. In a way, my posts became my daily journal....something I'd like to take into my everyday life.

Thanks for all the prayers and support. "Buen Camino" to you all.
